

Britney Spears, Make Me... (ft. G-Eazy)

FFriday, I'm dreaming a mile a minute about some man
This feeling, I wanna go with
Coz there's no way
We're hiding away from this tonight
This tonight
Can tell yuu want be
By the way I see you staring cross the rome, babe
No shame in the game
Just cut the shit, be honest!
You know what you gotta do tonight, do tonight

Just want you to make me move
Like it ain't a choice for you
Like you got a job to do
Just want you to raise my roof
Something sensational, sensational

And make me uhhh uhhh uhhh /2x

No rules from the bottom ...
Let's take it back to my room
Igniting the heat of the moment
Let the sparks fuse!
Blowing up to the ceiling
We're burning bright
When we cut the line

Coz you're the flame that took me ...
The fire comes in the sapphire sun
There's no way I'm gonna be fighting this tonight
This tonight

Just want you to make me move
Like it ain't a choice for you
Like you got a job to do
Just want you to raise my roof
Something sensational, sensational

And make me uhhh uhhh uhhh /2x
