

Britney Spears, Mona Lisa

This is the story about Mona Lisa

Tha' Mona Lisa

Ladies and gentlemen, I've got a little story to tell

About Mona Lisa, And how she suddenly fell

See everyone knew her, They knew her oh so well

Now I am taking over to release her from her spell

She's the original, she's unforgettable

she wants that you to know

she's been gone

It's kind of incredible

She's so unpredictable

She wants that you to know

She's been cloned, she's been cloned, she's been cloned

She was taken under, drowning in her sea

Running like an angel, she was crying and could not see (oh no!)

Now see everyone's watching, as she starts to fall

And want her a breakdown

Be a legend of a fall.

She's the original, she's unforgettable

she wants that you to know

she's been gone

It's kind of incredible

She's so unpredictable

She wants that you to know

She's been cloned, she's been cloned, she's been cloned

Ladies does that make you cry?

Mona Lisa's got to fly

Nobody really dies

Everyone, may we have a moment of silence? Right here.

(uhhhhhhhhhhhhh)

God

She's the original, she's unforgettable

she wants that you to know

she's been cloned

It's kind of incredible

She's so unpredictable

She wants that you to know

That she's home, that she's home

She's the original, she's unforgettable

she wants that you to know

she's been cloned

It's kind of incredible

She's so unpredictable

She wants that you to know

That she's home, that she's home, that she's home.
