

Britney Spears, This Mornin' (My Song)

This mornin'-Hannah Richmond

I woke up this mornin' couldn't walk
I opened the window couldn't talk
I tried to smile my teeth went missing
I couldnt find my heart out the lock

I waited till sunday couldn't sleep
All the time Oh counting sheep
Thought I knew better but I'm lost
And now i'll talk about the cross

I cried 'till mornin' when you died
I thought wot I got to hide
I needed some love,ohhh some comfort someone to share my home

And now I've got you, your here
Standing with me,oh Strength my dear
My heart was broken but it's ok
I'll see you more each day
