

Bro'Sis, I Belive

Alle:

Do you know what it feels like?
Do you know when the time's right
to go the very own way?
No matter what they say

Faiz:

I was never the one to do the things all the people do
I'm the one to decide it what I do is cool

Sha:

Never do I listen to what my parents try to tell me
Record only five is not a part of my dream

Hila:

(What, ah)
I always play my own things in my own kind of trance
I like to find you in sneakers an big baggy pants

Faiz:

I like going to the movies with a girl in my arm

Hila:

I like boys that are cute with a lot of charme
I like going to a party, dance a night away

Faiz:

Sometimes I stay in bed and I sleep all day

Hila:

And if I don't like something, I'll be quick to let you know

Alle:

And this is how the story goes!

Chorus repeat

Giovanni:

I'll always be curious about a hole to stand and my mind always don't stop until you get enough

Hila:

If I see something that I like, I go and grap it
And if I can't get it on the same day

Indira:

Ey, that'll be another one just for don't sell
You have to keep your hat up and go for your dreams, sometimes a little harder than what it may seem

Ross:

I believe in yourself and go for what you know,
sometimes it's fast, sometimes it's slow
Never wanna see you laugh, you wanna scream out loud, all the others may wonder what this is all about

Alle:

It's just us six getting ready for the show
and this is how the story goes

Chorus repeat
