

Brooke Hogan, Falling

I've been around him and i know what he's about.

Shining those fancy things but it's not what he's made out of.

He takes good care of me and loves me when im down he's my best frienemy and damn he makes

So now im feeling like i'm choked up wrote you a text yea we broke up.

I try to settle somethings but now that games done i see your face red.

you getting wasted you play with fire it'll get you like you K-fed we on the record baby you got a sec

*Chorus* x2

And i'm falling for him

I'm falling in love

I never thought i'd fall in love

I never thought i'd fall in

When life is hard on him he wants me by his side when i lay next to him he holds me thru the night

I'll build a life for him i'll keep him safe and warm when he comes home to me i'll be right at the door

And now i'm knocking on your door miss open up looking gorgeous fly from head to toe she smiles

*Chorus* x 2

And i'm falling for him

I'm falling in love

I never thought i'd fall in love

I never thought i'd fall in

Baby you don't know who much i need you you know i would give up everything to be with you got

*Chorus* x 2

And i'm falling for him

I'm falling in love

I never thought i'd fall in love

I never thought i'd fall in
