

Brother Cane, Mirror Ball

(Johnson, Frederiksen, Sims)

Spinning mirror ball, hanging over me

Spinning mirror ball, are you listening

Don't justify or hesitate, feel the sorrow when you wait

Close your eyes and don't ask why, you will need no alibi

Lucky mirror ball, hanging over me

Come and see me now

Come and show me, show me how

I'm waiting, been standing on the line,

Just waiting, I'm crossing over this time

Don't save me, looks like I'm finally out of my mind

Lucky mirror ball, never lie to me

Is it real at all, immortality?

Not satisfied in between, living here with all these things

I can see the other side, do I dare to take that ride

Hold me now, and I will wait

Dreams can lie, and drift away

Spinning mirror ball, are you listening

Spinning mirror ball, never lie to me
