

Bruce Dickinson, Mistress Of Mercy

Bruce Dickinson prezentuje utwór "Mistress Of Mercy" z płyty "The Mandrake Project" (premiera 1

Give me my freedom, release me from pain
Mistress Of Mercy, come thrill me again
Time to return to the womb whence I came
No more tomorrows
No judgement or blame

I can be what I never was
Skeletons of fury 'cos my mind was lost

Far... From the old ways
Sleepers all awake
Lost in the harmony
The majesty, the ecstasy

Hunting the souls
Of the blackened and damned
Bound for the future
Who knows where I land
Have to believe
There's a god in this world
For I can become one
My science has learned

I can be what I never was
Now that I am ready
'Cos my mind is lost

Far from the old ways
Sleepers all awake
Lost in the harmony
The majesty, the ecstasy

I can be what I never was
Now that I am ready
'Cos my mind is lost

Far from the old ways
Sleepers all awake
Lost in the harmony
The majesty, the ecstasy
Another world, another life
An afterlife... Again
Lost in the ecstasy
The harmony, the majesty
