

Bruce Springsteen, Further On

Further up the road
Further up the road
I'll meet you further on up the road
Where the way dark and the night is cold
Meet you further down the road

Where the road is dark and the seed is sowed
Where the gun is cocked and the bullet's cold
Where the miles are marked in the blood and gold
I'll meet you further down the road

Further up the road
Further up the road
Meet you further on up the road
Where the way dark and the night is cold
Meet you further on up the road

Got on my dead man's suit and my smilin' skull ring
Graveyard boots and song to sing
A song to sing, keep me out of the cold
And I'll meet you further down the road.

Further up the road
Further up the road
Meet you further on up the road
Where the way dark and the night is cold
Meet you further on up the road

Further up the road
Further up the road
I'll meet you further on up the road
One sunny morning we'll rise I know

Now I been out in the desert, here doin' my time
Searchin' through the dust for a sign
If there's a light up ahead well brother I don't know
I'll meet you further on up the road

Further up the road
Further up the road
Meet you further on up the road
Where the way dark and the night is cold
Meet you further on up the road

Further up the road
Further up the road
I'll meet you further on up the road
Where the way dark and the night is cold
I'll meet you further on up the road

Further up the road
Further up the road
I'll meet you further on up the road
Where the way dark and the night is cold
I'll meet you further on up the road

Further up the road
Further up the road
I'll meet you further on up the road
Where the way dark and the night is cold
I'll meet you further on up the road

Further up the road
I'll meet you further on up the road
One sunny mornin' we'll rise I know
And I'll meet you further on up the road
