Bryan Adams, Broken Wings

You always say the things I can believe in, Always say the things I wanna hear, I believe them all - The stories short and tall, I believe you - Yeah I believe you.

You give me love, When love is all I need to live, You gave your word, when words were just superlative, When I was blind, you came and opened up my eyes, Now I feel I can believe in anything, You taught me how to fly on broken wings.

Always do the things I can depend on, Always there, every night and day, Everytime I've fallen down - You've always been around, To lift me up again, To set me straight again.

Yeah you give me love, When love is all I need to live, You gave your word, when words were just superlative, When I was blind, you came and opened up my eyes, Now I feel I can believe in anything, You taught me how to fly on broken wings.

Sometimes I find myself on my own, And cant find the road that leads me back home, But you made me believe I can do anything, Even fly on broken wings.

Ohh you give me love, love, When love is all I need to live, You gave your word, when words were just superlative, When I was blind, you came and opened up my eyes, Now I feel I can believe in anything, You taught me how to fly on broken wings.

Taught me how to fly - Yeah, On broken wings.
