

Bryan Adams, Never Gonna Rain

They say time is a healer - time'll take your pain away
They say love is a teacher - teach you to get on your knees and pray
Well I got nothin' but time - time on my hands
And I got nothin' but love - for someone who understands

And I'm gonna - smile like I never had a heartache
Laugh like I never had a care
Gonna take my cup and fill it up
Like it's never gonna rain - never gonna rain again
Rain - never gonna rain never never gonna rain again

You can call me a dreamer - say what you wanna say
But I'm a believer - I believe there's gonna be a better day
If there's a heart that's been broken - a love that's been thrown away
It's gonna be somebody's treasure - someone else's happy day

I'm gonna smile like I never had a heartache
Laugh like I never had a care
Dance like I was born dancin'
On a street corner somewhere
And if it rains I'm gonna take my shoes off
I'm gonna turn my face into the wind
Gonna take my cup and fill it up
Like it's never gonna rain - never gonna rain again
Rain, never gonna rain never never gonna rain again
Rain, never gonna rain never never gonna rain again
Rain, never gonna rain never never gonna rain again

They say time is a healer - time'll take your pain away
They say love is a teacher - teach you to get on your knees & pray
I got nothin but time on my hands
I could use a little song and it goes like this...
