Buffy Sainte-Marie, Up Where We Belong

Who knows what tomorrow brings In a world where few hearts survive. All I know is the way I feel If it's real I'll keep it alive

The road is long And there are mountains in our way But we climb a step everyday

Love lift us up where we belong Where the eagels cry on a mountain high Love lift us up where we belong Far from the worlds we know Up where the clear winds blow

Some hang on what used to be They live their lives, looking behind. When all we have is here and now All our lives up there to find.

The road is long
And there are mountains in our way
But we climb a step everyday

Love lift us up where we belong Where the eagels cry on a mountain high Love lift us up where we belong Far from the worlds we know Up where the clear winds blow.

Time goes by No time to cry Life's you and I Alive. Today.

Love lift us up where we belong Where the eagels cry on a mountain high Love lift us up where we belong Far from the worlds we know Up where the clear winds blow. x 2 </lyrics>
