

Burning Point, Salvation By Fire

(Introduction:)

Far away from foreign land came the strange soulless man drove all the righteous men out of their homes

Hear the whole nation cry help from the other side against the eastern dark The Battle of the End

I hear the sound of the thunder coming from distant skies dance of the dead in the circles of fire keeping the gods on our side

Blood of a man stains the green land leaving the mark of death falling from grace into quicksand
it makes you hard to breathe

(Pre-chorus)

(Those) bright burning eyes reflect a soul of a warrior born from the fire of ancient gods

(Chorus)

Salvation by Fire will come reflecting the deeds undone face the destiny

Salvation, Salvation, Salvation will come...

Deliver us from the evil deliver us from the go(o)d deceiver reigns in silence this is the end of my world

(Pre-chorus)

(Chorus 2)

Salvation by Fire will come
face the destiny

Salvation by Fire will come
repeating history

We lean on the ones, the ones who let us down before We die for a cause: a cause long lost in the history
