

Butler Bernard, Woman I Know

Well I feel so alive, got no reason to hide, there ain't any woman I know,
that's got me so high.

I got things on my mind that will reach you in time,
there ain't any woman I know,
that's got me so high.

And though she really lied, yes though she really lied
there ain't any woman I know
that's got me so high.

And though we really tried, yes though we really tried there ain't an emotion I know, so low, so low.

Got a reason to stay
she's taken the pain from yesterday,
got a reason to stay
she's got no rhythm, she says,
she's got no rhythm, she says.

So I feel so alive
got no reason to hide, but there ain't an emotion I know, so low
so low
