

Butterfly, Japanese World

Sori Kaima
Kyota
Dewa America
No Ichiban
You may now rock and roll
No hooka kooka, PIZZA

I'm on a Japanese high
I'm what the Japanese buy
Their breakin' down the doors
I'm Ichiban at the record stores

You can't rely on the everyday rule
It's here today and it's gone tomorrow
Kyoto Moon it will watch over you till your dreams come true.

I have a Japanese hit (He's in Japan, He's a rock and roll man)
And I'm makin the most of it (If truth be known he's never alone)
Back in the USA
I can't get any radio plays so
I love my Japanese World

You can't rely on the everyday rule
It's here today and it's gone tomorrow
Kyoto Moon it will watch over you till your dreams come true.

Take your stereo-type and smash it
Take your family name and trash it
Take your Japanese car and smash it, crash it, crash it

We are descendants of Nippon warriors
We carry with us a long tradition
But we have made just a few revisions
And otherwise we love our musicians

Here in my Japanese World
I have a Japanese girl
I am a happy man in my kingdom of Japan
I love my Japanese Girl

We are the face of the new Japan
We will establish our own tradition
The more the structure the less divisions
The rigid rules and the inhibitions

You can't rely on the everyday rule
It's here today and it's gone tomorrow
Kyoto Moon it will watch over you

This my Japanese World
This my Japanese World
This my Japanese World
