Butterfly, Japanese World

Sori Kaima Kyota Dewa America No Ichiban You may now rock and roll No hooka kooka, PIZZA

I'm on a Japanese high I'm what the Japanese buy Their breakin' down the doors I'm Ichiban at the record stores

You can't rely on the everyday rule It's here today and it's gone tomorrow Kyoto Moon it will watch over you till your dreams come true.

I have a Japanese hit (He's in Japan, He's a rock and roll man) And I'm makin the most of it (If truth be known he's never alone) Back in the USA I can't get any radio plays so I love my Japanese World

You can't rely on the everyday rule It's here today and it's gone tomorrow Kyoto Moon it will watch over you till your dreams come true.

Take your stereo-type and smash it Take your family name and trash it Take your Japanese car and smash it, crash it, crash it

We are descendants of Nippon warriors We carry with us a long tradition But we have made just a few revisions And otherwise we love our musicians

Here in my Japanese World I have a Japanese girl I am a happy man in my kingdom of Japan I love my Japanese Girl

We are the face of the new Japan We will establish our own tradition The more the structure the less divisions The rigid rules and the inhibitions

You can't rely on the everyday rule It's here today and it's gone tomorrow Kyoto Moon it will watch over you

This my Japanese World This my Japanese World This my Japanese World
