Buzz Poets, Closethead

I think I'm losing my mind Complacency I can't find (But I can see it) When life leads me blind It takes up all of my time (I know I need it) [CHORUS] My secrecy doesn't bother me at all Knowing me only causes me to fall I've been chased by a sound That's turning me all around (and now in running) In life I have found That loneliness wears the crown (and so I wear it) [CHORUS] Staring into a flame Makes me smile once again (and so I burn it) Love is a pain And makes me feel like a stain (so I burn it) [CHORUS] Yeah, yeah, yeah [Lyrics & amp; amp; Music by Todd Demont]
