

C-BooL, Fight To Win (feat. Giang Pham)

Fight to win this game

DJ C-BooL and Giang Pham
We know how to win this game

We know how to win this game

Empty space that was full yesterday and I think why I still wanna stay
Wonder why I can't change my mind
Maybe I am blind

Melody's still playing in my head
But I still wanna lie in my bed
And I can't leave it all behind

Something tells me tomorrow I can take the world again
(Again Again)
And I know that I won't be alone 'cause it's not the end

Let me smile, let me cry, let me love, let me dance all night
(All night yeah yeah)
Cause I know, yeah I know, now I know how to win this fight

I know how to win this game

Fight to win this game
Satisfy my desires
Forget all the bad moments
Those moments,
Strange moments
And live my way

I see faces that I've seen before
I think I can do something more
And I know I can change my mind
Leave it all behind

Melody's still playing in my head
(In my head)
But I'm already out of my bed
(Of my bed)
Learning how not to be so blind
(So blind so blind)

Something tells me tomorrow I can take the world again
(Again again)
And I know that I won't be alone 'cause it's not the end

Fight to win this game
Satisfy my desires
Forget all the bad moments
Those moments,
Strange moments
And live my way

Fight to win this game
Satisfy my desires
Forget all the bad moments
Those moments,
Strange moments
And live my way

Fight to win this game

Satisfy my desires
Forget all the bad moments
Those moments,
Strange moments
And live my way
