Cadaverous Condition, The Lesser Travelled Sea

I am the flame I am the dream I am deep within I drink beauty with my eyes yet nothing but dreams in my fist

I am the path I take lead I never forget I never forgive I carry the torch and leave you behind yet nothing but dreams in my fist wait wait wait the sad sound of trains wait wait wait a fist filled with illusions wait wait wait dont smash the silence wait wait wait all or nothing at all the chance of a lifetime in a lifetime of chance the wild things in my head come as close as the end (2x) beautiful one are you dead or just drunk while you still sleep I fly through the night beautiful one are you dying or dead waiting forever was the life that Ive lead

wait wait wait

beautiful one are you dead or just drunk while you still sleep I fly through the night sinister one are you dying or already dead waiting forever was the life that Ive lead

wait wait wait

I never forget I never forgive all or nothing at all

I am the flame I am the dream I am deep within all or nothing at all (2x)
