

Calvin Harris, Over Now (feat. The Weeknd)

I don't really care if your tears fall down your face
You know you play the victim every time
I know you getting trunt every night
Oh yeah

Your girls ain't shit trying to get mr off your mind
The ame ones who be hitting up my line
They're not your friends

I need you to know
That we ain't never gonna go back
This time it got so bad
It's best for me
It's best for you
I need you to know that
Tired to love you
But i forced that
All signs we ignored that
And it's not the same
Cause it's over now
Don't get too confused girl it's over now
No coming back around
Nothing left to lose because it's over now

So i take this just to forget
I don't regret these memories
And i swear i am not trying to test
I wish you the best with the life you lead
But you always need that attention
Feding the press when we don't speak
But we're both whit somebody else so please stop calling me

I need you to know
That we ain't never gonna go back
And it's not the same
Cause it's over now
Don't get too confused girl it's over now
No coming back around
Nothing left to lose because it's over now

And it's not the same
Cause it's over now
Don't get too confused girl it's over now
Nothing left to lose because it's over now
