

Camp Fitch, The Titanic

(chorus)

it was sad

so sad

too bad

it was sad that the great ship went down to the bottom of the sea

(uncles and aunts, little children wet their pants/fishies and turtles, old ladies lost their girdles/ma's and pa's, teenagers lost their bras)

it was sad when the great ship went down

KER-PLUNK!

Oh they built the ship titanic, to sail the ocean blue

and the people said that the water would never get through but the good lord raised his hand, and that ship would never land

it was sad when the great ship went down

YEE-HAW!

(chorus)

they were not too far from england, they were not too far from shore when the rich refused to associate with the poor so they sent them down below where they'd be the first to go

it was sad when the great ship went down

YEE-HAW!

(chorus)

mrs. Astor turned around just to see her husband drown as the great titanic gave a gurgling sound so she wrapped herself in mink as that ship began to sink

it was sad when the great ship went down

YEE-HAW!

(chorus)

so they sent the lifeboats out on that dark and stormy sea as the band played on with nearer my God to thee'

little children wept and cried as that ship went on it's side

it was sad when the great ship went down

YEE-HAW!

(chorus)

so the moral of the story, as plain as you can see,

never trust a sailor

on the highest sea,

he may call you honey darlin'

and say his love is true but when that ship goes down he'll say the heck with you!"

(chorus)
ker-plunk
it sunk
better luck
next time
ginger-ale
in a pail
taste good
like it should cha-cha-cha!
