

Cannons, Ruthless

Word on the street, you're with somebody new
Tell me now baby, what does she mean to you?
Word on the street, you're telling everyone I'm old news
Just pick up the phone and tell me that it's not true

You're making me look foolish, stupid
Man, you're so ruthless, fuck you

Thought we had something, how could I be so wrong?
Tell me now baby, please don't sugar coat
Everything you said makes sense to me now
Everything breaks, everything strays, now I know

You're making me look foolish, stupid
Man, you're so ruthless, fuck you
You're making me look foolish, stupid
Man, you're so ruthless, fuck you

You're making me look foolish, stupid
Man, you're so ruthless, fuck you
You're making me look foolish, stupid
Man, you're so ruthless, fuck you

You're making me look foolish, stupid
Man, you're so ruthless, fuck you
