

Carly Rae Jepsen, Aeroplanes

Dream slow

I want you to be the one for me, you know
And when that light inside your eyes begins to glow
I won't hold you back from anything you want, babe
I want you to be the one

Speak nice

I had a funeral for us and for my life
If I could be the way you wanted me tonight
Then I won't hold you back from anything
I want to give you everything you want, babe

I can see diamonds in the rough
I would fly aeroplanes, an ocean for your touch
Didn't you ever dream of us?
One look in your eyes, and it's not me

I can see diamonds in the rough
I would fly aeroplanes, an ocean for your touch
Didn't you ever dream of us?
One look in your eyes, and it's not me

We grow colder, the Nights for feeling the
Fantasy of the Way it could have been, so

I want you to look inside my head and now see me
With a candle at your table, real peaceful
Too quiet to need anything
I want to give you everything you want, babe

I can see diamonds in the rough
I would fly aeroplanes, an ocean for your touch
Didn't you ever dream of us?
One look in your eyes, and it's not me

I can see diamonds in the rough
I would fly aeroplanes, an ocean for your touch
Didn't you ever dream of us?
One look in your eyes, and it's not me

Gonna have to make time
We're gonna have to build each other's lives, we're only Earth angels
And every day I want you

We're gonna have to make time
We're gonna have to build each other's lives, we're only Earth angels
And every day I want you

We're gonna have to make time
We're gonna have to build each other's lives, we're only Earth angels
And every day I want you

We're gonna have to make time
We're gonna have to build each other's lives, we're only Earth angels
And every day I want you
