Carly Rae Jepsen, So Right

Do you really think this is a good idea?
I mean, no, probably not, but, yeah
Alright, see you at my place
'Kay, see you soon

I'm complimented by your invitation
Did we crash into each other's lives again overnight?
I don't blame you for your hesitation
Will we only make each other cry again?

I get so real
When I'm with you
You follow me high
Don't follow me low
'Cause on the occasion
That one's needing two
I'm ready to ride
Wherever you go

I was wrong, I'm still into it
Did I lose your love when it's physical?
Sometimes we get it so right
We can get it so right

I was wrong, no one's innocent
Did we fuck this up when it's critical?
Sometimes we get it so right
So right
Baby, we can get it so right
So right, so right

Got in trouble with the new location
When you moved into my place, I'm new to someone all the time
After dinner, there was conversation dripped in paranoia
And it always turned into a fight

But you know the deal
When I'm with you
You follow me high
Don't follow me low
'Cause on the occasion
That one's needing two
I'm ready to ride
Wherever you go

I was wrong, I'm still into it
Did I lose your love when it's physical?
Sometimes we get it so right
So right
We can get it so right
So right, so right

I was wrong, no one's innocent
Did we fuck this up when it's critical?
Sometimes we get it so right
So right
Baby, we can get it so right
So right, so right

Sometimes we get it so

Move closer to me
'Cause I know you see through me
Like I want you to read between the lines

Don't say you're sorry
And I won't say I'm sorry
Yeah, we don't need the words to make it right

Sometimes we get it so right
We can get it so right
Sometimes we get it so right
Baby, we can get it so right
Did we fuck this up?
Sometimes we get it so right
Move closer to me 'cause I know
We can get it so right
I want you to read between the lines
Sometimes we get it so right
Don't say you're sorry and I won't
Baby, we can get it so right
We don't need the words to make it right
Sometimes we get it so right
