

Carole King, You Will Find Me There

You don't have to wear the weight of the world on your shoulders
Don't you know I'll be there for you, always, always
You can tell me anything, and you know I'll understand

When you're down and out, and your soul is bare
You just turn around, you will find me there

You keep on giving everyone so much more than your share
So many things you do in so many ways, always
But you need someone you can hold on to

When you're down and out, I will always care
You just turn around, you will find me there

When it's all gone wrong, it's falling down on you
Lean on me, I'll be strong
I will keep you safe, keep you warm

When you're down and out, I will always care
You just turn around, you will find me there

I will take your hand, I will dry your tears
I will comfort you when your hope has disappeared

When you're down and out, I will always care
You just turn around, you will find me there, you will find me right there

When you're down and out and you're in despair
You just turn around, you will find me there

When you're down and out, I will be right there
You just turn around, you will find me, you will find me right there
