

Cats On Trees, You Win

The words could never tell how much I'm sorry
I can never play again these memories, you see
Don't want to see you leave too far,
Can you please stay home

You once said,
This feelings will never come to an end
I want to be the only one,
I want this sentence to be true
Can you please stay home

I take the guilt and throw it away
I shut the stories they are out of my way
And I beg you please, you have to stay, you win
I take the guilt and throw it away
I shut the stories they are out of my way
You burned my head I lost all my sight

You have to forgive yourself
Have to forget your sane
What can I do, It's my fight
You have to forgive yourself
Have to forget your sane
What can I do, It's our life

All the things we have done,
Are you gonna let them down?
I want to be the only one,
I want this sentence to be true
Can you please stay home

I take the guilt and throw it away
I shut the stories they are out of my way
And I beg you please, you have to stay, you win
I take the guilt and throw it away
I shut the stories they are out of my way
You burned my head I lost all my sight

You have to forgive yourself
Have to forget your sane
What can I do, It's my fight
You have to forgive yourself
Have to forget your sane
What can I do, It's our life
