Cattle Decapitation, The Product Alive

Violently passive consumer -- vital statistic

A gear in a machine spinning out of control and ever ready to explode

The cemetery will carry on -- with carrion, turned to ashes

The species will die the harder they try to control the masses

Itemized flesh -- scanned inventory

A New Testament in greed

Taking count -- humanity is the product

Ever expanding the marketplace, dissolving the commonwealth

Pandemic -- the damnation, epic

If this is the answer, then count me out.

Humanity is the cancer, and I want out.

Dead monolith -- towering cesspool of Babel

Dreams of tyrants -- the product alive

Excessive commodity -- dominant ideology

Self-destructive machine spinning out of control and ever ready to implode

The cemetery will carry on -- with carrion, turned to ashes

The species will die the harder they try to control the masses

I walked inside the monolith

In plastic I was reborn

If this is the answer, then count me out.

Humanity is the cancer, and I want out.

Dead monolith -- towering cesspool of babel!

Dreams of tyrants -- the product alive
