Celestial Season, Cherish My Pain

Celestial Season Forever Scarlet Passion Cherish My Pain My unbalanced soul is unleashed Friable desires become real In my dreams I try in vain To sleep on hopes and conquer The images of despair On untouched beauty... Undo my anger Cherish my pain painless one Once my precious... now... Be regretful with my frailty Give me shelter in the darkness And protect me from innocence Helpless am I... Am I so helpless? I am restless... release me... Confusing thoughts Forsaken trust Losing the grasp Falling into insanity ...But don't ignore Your weakness for me...
