Celldweller, Afraid This Time

(afraid echoes i the background)

Even if you want, you can't touch me now Leave me if you want you can't hurt me now

Build them up

High and strong so you'll never have to hurt too long

Put them up,

Til they surround and there's no real you left to be found

Hold it up,

High above no fear of hope or trustor love

Close it up,

And hold your ground and wait until it's time to finally close it down

It isn't easy to admit
I dont think im beleive it
Im afraid this time
ooooh, ooooh
(It isn't easy to admit I dont think im beleiving it)
It's not the same this time
ooooh, ooooh
(It isn't easy to admit I dont think im beleiving it)

Build them up

High and strong so you'll never have to hurt too long

Put them up,

Hold it up,

High above no fear of hope or trust or love

Close it up,

And hold your ground and wait until it's time to finally close it down

Im afraid this time ooooh, ooooh (It isn't easy to admit I dont think im beleiving it) It's not the same this time Im afraid this time (Even if you want, you can't touch me now Leave me if you want you can't hurt me now) I'm afraid this time (Even if you want, you can't touch me now
