

CETI, Wizards Of The Modern Worlds

Lot of words
They're only talking to blame
What you want
If you look right they're the same Cheater's scream
They always say: 'You should try'
Anyway
You have no choice and don't fight
And now again
this silly game
they want to reign
this stupid world
lies - maybe it's time to turn back?
let them to know they're still sad
men in the corner of dark worlds you leave behind
Lot of words
They're only talking to blame
What you want
If you look right they're the same
And now again
this silly game
they want to reign
this stupid world
lies - maybe it's time to turn back?
men in the corner of dark
