

Changing Faces, My Lovely

Oooohh, mmmm
Hey

Mmmmmm-mmmmm
Hey eh eh
Mmmmmm-mmmmm

[Charrise:]
It's been awhile since I've heard from you
For so many nights I've comtemplated
On what you're going through baby
It seems like everything is changing now
Cause we don't show love to each other
The way we used to

[Bridge:]
Please believe that I want
To truly understand you
And if open up baby
I promise to try
Try to give what you need
To show you that I'm willing
To listen with my heart
And let go of my pride

[Chorus:]
You're my lovely
You're my lovely
You're my baby
You're my lovely

[Cassandra:]
Maybe I've been too possessive baby
I know that I've tried to control ya
And rule your everything (your everything)
But if you (but if you)
Can give me something (give me something)
That I can focus on Want you to know that I've decided
(For you) for you I will (change)

[Bridge:]
Please believe that I want
To truly understand you
I know there's something's wrong
I can feel inside
So I want to hear what you need
Show you that I'm willing
To listen with my heart
And prove to you your my

[Chorus]

[Cassandra:]
I took it for granted
That you'd always be by my side
Oh yes

[Charisse:]
And now there's a chance
Oh, that I might be loosing my Lovely

Oooh, yeah

You are my lovely (you're my you're my)
You are my baby (my my my my my lovely)
You are my lovely (you're my you're my)

You're my lovely
My lovely
You're my baby

Yes you're my lovely
My lovely
You're my baby

[Chorus x4]
