

Charlatans Uk, Patrol

Charlatans Uk

Melting Pot

Patrol

I wanna patrol your innocent mind

It's only a dream

It'd be just like the old days

I know and i feel in the value of sound

How can we still

Tear each other's hearts out

You mess up my mind

Mess up my mind

Mess up my mind

You mess up my mind

Sun comes up

Sun goes down

On our way

To get back home and see you today

I wanna be over this anonymous phase

Or is it because

I feel like being hounded

Sell me a reason i'll sell you a sound

I guess in a way

I've ended what you've started

You mess up my mind

Mess up my mind

Mess up my mind

You mess up my mind

Sun comes up

Sun goes down

On our way

To get back home and see you today

Kick your kill, save us by

Someone's gotta

Take you down the line

I know what i'm feelin' the language of sound

How can we still

Tear each other's hearts out

You mess up my mind

Mess up my mind

Mess up my mind

You mess up my mind

You mess up my mind

You mess up my mind

You mess up my mind

You mess up my mind
