

Charlie Landsborough, Once Bitten Twice Shy

I heard it's said that once you're bitten, twice you're shy
Guess its true unless its you I am bitten by
You just say the word then hunny here am I
Lovin you again I don't know why

When you said goodbye I swore
That come what may if I had the chance again
I'd make you pay
Then you smile your smile at me
And I am away lovin you again I don't know why

Once bitten twice shy
Just doesn't apply
To me and how I am with you
I can never say when
Cause you hurt me and then
I come runnin again what can I do

Guess I know that you and I are worlds apart
How you'll ever bring is trouble to my heart
But just a word from you is all I need to start
Loving you again I don't know why

Once bitten twice shy
Just doesn't apply
To me and how I am with you
I can never say when
Cause you hurt me and then
I come runnin again what can I do

Once bitten twice shy
Just doesn't apply
To me and how I am with you
I can never say when
Cause you hurt me and then
I come runnin again what can I do

I come runnin again what can I do
I come runnin again what can I do
