

Charlie Landsborough, Uninvited

Last night I went out with some old friends of ours
I had stayed till much to late
We sat and we talked till the early hours
Came creeping into my eyes

You weren't invited but all thru the night
My eyes kept on playing strange tricks with the light
You smiled from the shadows and whisper my name
Last night uninvited your memory came

Suddenly out of the blue you'd appear
A sweet mystery seen only by me
I had that old feeling of having you near Fought back the tears from my eyes

You weren't invited but all thru the night
My eyes kept on playing strange tricks with the light
You smiled from the shadows and whisper my name
Last night uninvited your memory came

I didn't ask you
I didn't want you
To come back and fannin the flames
I tried to prevent you and God knows who sent you
But last night uninvited you came

You weren't invited but all thru the night
My eyes kept on playing strange tricks with the light
You smiled from the shadows and whisper my name
Last night uninvited your memory came
Last night uninvited your memory came
