

Charlie Puth, Charlie Be Quiet!

Charlie, be quiet, don't make a sound
You got to lower the noise a little bit now
If she knows you're in love, she's gonna run, run away-ay-ay-ay

I'm not making the same mistake
Won't be putting my heart on display
I'll just water my feelings down
I'm not going out looking dumb
Telling all my friends how you're the one
Those words never leavin' my mouth
But the feeling gets

Stronger, baby, what am I gonna do now?
When you text me
'Cause I'm talking too loud

Charlie, be quiet, don't make a sound
You've got to lower the noise a little bit now
If she knows you're in love, she's gonna run, run away-ay-ay-ay
Charlie, be quiet, don't make a sound
You've got to lower the noise a little bit now
If she knows you're in love, she's gonna run, run away-ay-ay-ay

I'm not gonna do more than like, won't be sleeping over every night
I'll act like I don't even care, yeah
I'm not going out looking dumb
Tellin' all my friends I've found someone
Then wakin' up without you there, but the feeling gets

Stronger, baby, what am I gonna do now?
When you text me
'Cause I'm talking too loud

Charlie, be quiet, don't make a sound
You've got to lower the noise a little bit now
If she knows you're in love, she's gonna run, run away-ay-ay-ay
Charlie, be quiet, don't make a sound
You've got to lower the noise a little bit now
If she knows you're in love, she's gonna run, run away-ay-ay-ay
If she knows you're in love, she's gonna run, run away-
