

Charlie Puth, Smells Like Me

Lonely

When you're in his arms

Yeah you know I prayed for that, prayed for that, yeah

Your laundry

Dipped in my cologne

Cause you know it takes you back, takes you back

Tell me,

Do you ever miss me when I'm gone? (Gone)

Wondering what body I'll be on (On)

We can reconsider if you want (Want)

Baby, don't forget about me ever

I hope the memories killin' you over there

Don't even front

You know that you just can't compare what it used to be

I hope your jacket smells like me

And when you touch him does it really feel the same?

Or are you lying there thinking about the way that it used to be

I hope your jacket smells like me

Candles,

They're the same as mine

But it's not because of me, cause of me (right)

When will you quit wasting your time

Or if he knew that you keep little things to remind you

Tell me,

Do you ever miss me when I'm gone? (Gone)

Wondering what body I'll be on (On)

We can reconsider if you want (Want)

Baby, don't forget about me ever

I hope the memories killin' you over there

Don't even front

You know that you just can't compare what it used to be

I hope your jacket smells like me

And when you touch him does it really feel the same? (Feel the same)

Or are you lying there thinking about the way that it used to be

I hope your jacket smells like me

Are you sleeping in my t-shirt again

How's it feel when you press it, press it

Up against your skin, while you breathe it in

I know that you remember, 'member

I hope the memories killin' you over there

Don't even front

You know that you just can't compare what it used to be

Compare what it's to be

I hope your jacket smells like me

And when you touch him does it really feel the same?

Or are you lying there thinking about the way that it used to be

I hope your jacket smells like me
