

Charlie Winston, Speak To Me

f there's a lesson then I'm willing to learn it
If there's a blessing then I'm willing to earn it
But I'm lost on a day like this and I need a little helping hand.
My kamikazi is coming to break up
Every plan I been trying to make up
I had a vision but I didn't think to listen to the truths up against me now

So speak to me I'm in a city looking bleak to me
I need to breathe and find out what it means to be.
Speak to me I got a feeling there's a freak in me
That's seeking me and everything is eating me.
Speak to me I couldn't give a sh*t if what you leak
Is super weak, I gotta get your energy.
Speak to me, I could be capable of secrecy
But lock and key is never gonna free me.
Woah, speak to me.

I sit around drinking coffee all day
Nothing to do and little to say
I get stuck into the thought of letting love in,
Thinking I can understand myself
But then the whirlpool pulls me under
And it tears my mind asunder
I get to wishing that I could be a vanishing act
And slip away by stealth

So speak to me I'm in a city looking bleak to me
I need to breathe and find out what it means to be.
Speak to me I got a feeling there's a freak in me
That's seeking me and everything is eating me.
Speak to me I couldn't give a sh*t if what you leak
Is super weak, I gotta get your energy.
Speak to me, I could be capable of secrecy
But lock and key is never gonna free me.
Woah, speak to me.
Speak to me
Speak to me

Speak to me I'm in a city looking bleak to me
I need to breathe and find out what it means to be.
Speak to me I got a feeling there's a freak in me
That's seeking me and everything is eating me.
Speak to me I couldn't give a sh*t if what you leak
Is super weak, I gotta get your energy.
Speak to me, I could be capable of secrecy
But lock and key is never gonna free me.
