Charlotte Church, Easy To Forget

Its late at night and youre not home Im still waiting for your call But it never-it never comes Do you ever think of me? Can you hear my empty plea For your love and affection?

Ill never know, Ill never know
Why I cant let golts what you do
Not what you say
That keeps you one step away
Am I that easy to forget?
If only youd make one sacrifice
Do what it takes to make it alright
Am I that easy to forget?

Im standing here in the bitter cold Wish that you were here to hold Cause I miss you The way you used to be Am I in this love alone? When I speak, the words just fall And you listen (but not to me)
