Children Of Bodom, In The Shadow

I cannot get up by the howling cry Just justify my longing to die, Bury me down at last, I think about it in the shadows and cry!

Can scissors heal a man torn of tears, A fading I fear inside. The reaper in sheet will stand by me I'm dreaming, I'm wearing a black dress that night!

I'm just a being tonight, And still I'm dressed so black... OH YEAH! Maybe I'm just blind, But maybe I should try...

Can't you see why the vision is calling you?

I got the one, the dream of horror! Dreams of blood, dreams of war! Rudest eyes have seen the fright Welcome to the eternal night!

You won't be a butcher No, you won't be at last Somebody's the trigger Take it off! What, you are the priest's son? So fuck -SO FUCK YOURSELF AND DIE!

Sill I stand against the death! Am I just a shade? Always I'm awake and in black! Sill I dare to praise the Lord -No I won't pass to the lord Goodbye - no...

So the keeper waits upon, He waits upon a border Let me own your punishment, It's time to break the border!

The Candlelight fades away
There's nothing at all but me...[classical Part]

I stare at death and the darkest one's Watching me with cold eyes A god has been with me in the shadows I lost my reason to hate! ya!

[Voice:]
(So it's right...)
(I can leave the shadows!)
(The last one has to survive!)
YAWW!
WOW -RIGHT!

With my light shining bright I got my way, to regret ?? (just my hearts)??! With my last dying ryhme I got my world To betray for what I did by my motherfucking heart!

The shadows draw back into honesty and love! Obey, and it will cut your throat I can't speak and you shant be the next,

The shadows strike in your blame - YAW!
