

Chillove, My Eyes

My eyes
The window of my heart
My eyes
The door of my mind
My eyes
The mirror of my soul
My eyes

You have a place in my heart
The most important place
You're the secret in my life
I keep them in a special case
Only you can look inside
Only you have got a key
Only you can see the World
The way I see

You have a special place in my mind
The most important place
Next to the book of my life
Which I'm reading day by day
Nobody has read this book
Nobody has seen those pages
No one stands me
But you

My eyes
The window of my heart
My eyes
The door of my mind
My eyes
The mirror of my soul
My eyes

My soul is a temple of my hope
My soul is a home of our love
My soul is a thing I've never touched
I've never seen, but I know it exists

My eyes
The window of my heart
My eyes
The door of my mind
My eyes
The mirror of my soul
My eyes
