

Chinchilla, MF Diamond

I'm out here on my own on a coast that I've never been to before

I'm alone I don't know where I am
Let alone where we stand where we are

And we're ruled by the timezone drama
Staying up till it's your tomorrow

Till then I'll reread your texts the crumbs that you left
I'll over obsess

Say something so I don't spiral
Chinchilla you're not a child
Say something so I don't spiral
Ha ha ha ha (get bigger every time)

I run my life like a master
But when I love I disaster
Say something so I don't spiral
Ha ha ha ha (get bigger every time)

Im a mother fucking diamond
Baby you're so lucky
That you get to touch me
Touch me

I'm mother fucking diamond
I can make you happy
But you gotta let me
let me

I'm a sucker for a lover that silent treats me to death I I
I'm a victim of my own humiliation I'm addicted to stress I I Can't believe that I get so needy
Ultimate that they take or leave me
But the torture keeps me busy yeah

Say something so I don't spiral
Chinchilla you're not a child
Say something so I don't spiral
Ha ha ha ha

I run my life like a master
But when I love I disaster
Say something so I don't spiral
Ha ha ha ha

Im a mother fucking diamond
Baby you're so lucky
That you get to touch me
Touch me I'm mother fucking diamond I can make you happy
But you gotta let me
let me

Say something
