

Chojnacki &, I AM OVER YOU

If you could only spare a thought
For all the things that lay neglected
I'm through with begging on my knees
One day soon, I will leave

Where I will go I just don't know
I won't be waiting at your door
It hasn't been good for so long
Every day I sing this song

What become of us
Is in the past
I'm going to find a new future
Coz' I am over you
Not split in two
I'm going to find a new future

I cannot turn the other cheek
This a misery will just last longer
When I get home I fall asleep
And I my dreams I feel much stronger

Where I will go I just don't know
I won't be waiting at your door
It hasn't been good for so long
Every day I sing this song

What become of us
Is in the past
I'm going to find a new future
Coz' I am over you
Not split in two
I'm going to find a new future

I will until the time is right and close the door
I walk into a moonlight night, my life again mine to explore

What become of us
Is in the past
I'm going to find a new future
Coz' I am over you
Not split in two
I'm going to find a new future
