

Chris Brown, Be With You

(Chris Brown Talks}

yeah, i think i know who you are i love you, i wanna be with you but that can't happen with him in yo life

(Verse 1}

I just can't believe your still with him 'cause its all to him that were not together and just because you wont break it i can't be with you just 'cause he's so rude and beats you up don't mean you shouldn't stand up for yoself

(Chorous)

I know that i can't be with you i know that its all to do with him but i just wanna let you know that i love you
and im so happy we get to spend time together but i know i still can't be with you

(Verse 2)

i don't think he gets it i dont think he understands but i know what you really want, woah and just 'cause he can't think don't mean you need to make his decisions

(Chorous)

I know that i can't be with you
that i love you
but i know i still can't be with you

(Verse 3)

I know what it feels like we have all been there before but this time its dfifferent this time it's between us two and him

(chorous)

I know that i can't be with you
that i love you
but i know i still can't be with you

(Goes on till fades out)
