

Chris Brown, Excuse Me Mama

(Verse 1)

I was at the mall on some back to school tryna cop me a couple pairs shoes
And then I looked to my left
And I lost my breath 'cause this girl was so fresh Really wasn't tryna intrude But she looked like the type I was into
And I wanted to holla she was with her mama Felt like a catch 22
i shoulda step to her,
without any disrespect to her and I thought she would like
If I kept it polite
So I stepped and this is what I said

(Chorus)

Excuse me mama (hey)
Your daughters fine (your daughter's fine)
And If I could id like a moment of her time (a moment of her time) While I was shoppin, I saw her walking by So can I get her number and ill give her mine?

(Verse 2)

wishin I could catch her by herself waitin til she wasn't with nobody else but every time I saw her I would try to call her, but she was busy checkin for the sales Part of me was like just let it go
The other part of me was like let her know,
But I will never get this chance

My life again i gotta man up and tell her so

(Hook)

i shoulda step to her,
and I thought she would like
If I kept it polite
So I stepped and this is what I said

(chorus)

Excuse me mama(hey)
Your daughters fine (so fine, so fine)
And If I could i would like a moment of her time While I was shopping I saw her walking by
So can I get her number and ill give her mine?

(Breakdown)

baby don't u know that u got me all up in the wrong store now the malls bout to close Crazy , but I followed you 'cause I just couldn't take it no more No disrespect to your mama but I need that Number baby yeahhh..

(chorus x2)

Excuse me mama (hey)
Your daughters fine
And If I could id like a moment of her time While I was shopping I saw her walking by
So can I get her number and ill give her mine?
woh ohohohoh
