

Chris Brown Feat. Game, Nice

Scott Storch, Game, Chris Brown

The meanest, the meaner, for a second I seen her

Had me open, got me lookin', losin' all my control

The passion I'm feignin', baby, you're the new meanin'

But I found myself trippin' when you walked through the door

And I know it's not like me gettin' beside myself

She got me feelin' that way

And I know it's unlikely that you gon' deny me

And just walk away

I'll be that guy that don't have time to play

Flippin' like a schedule, well, it's
