

Chris Brown, First Day Off Spring

Man, I got lucky, look what

(What?)

I've stumbled upon

A woman that sees me

(Me)

For me not what I've done?

You give me this

(This)

Feeling, willing to give you my time

Girl, you make me feel like everything's alright

You're sorta like

Hearing the birds chirping in the morning light

Or maybe even receiving a kiss goodnight

Girl, you got me believing we just might

End up bein' more than just two friends

When we're together it feels ideal

The sunny weather puts a smile right on my face

So why would I ever turn my back on what we had?

Oh girl, you always bring that first day of spring

We kept things friendly

(Friendly)

Without crossing that boundary

Darling, I'm expressing

Are you listening?

You give me that

(That)

Feeling, willing to give you my time

Girl, you make me feel like everything's alright

You're sorta like

Hearing the birds chirping in the morning light

Or maybe even receiving a kiss goodnight

Girl, you got me believing we just might

End up bein' more than just two friends

When we're together it feels ideal

The sunny weather puts a smile right on my face

So why would I ever turn my back on what we had?

Oh girl, you always bring that first day of spring

I can feel the flowers blooming up

Under us smell the plush fragrance

(Fresh and lovely)

Winter time is over there is no other

I would rather spend my time with then you

When we're together it feels ideal

The sunny weather puts a smile right on my face

So why would I ever turn my back on what we had?

Oh girl, you always bring that first day of spring
