

Chris Brown, Missing you

[1: Chris Brown]

Layin here
All out of ideas
Ain't picked up the phone
In so damn long
I got the lights off
And I aint sleep bout a week
You got a man in defeat
And thats the picture of me
The last time we spoke
I said goodbye
You had this look on your face
So many tears in your eyes
And I tried
To say it was for the best
But now I regret my choice
[Mostek: Jhonta Austin]
And if I had it to do all over
I would find me another way
To express whats on my mind
And try to find me the words I wanna say
And now I'm to hurt to love another
But I'm too proud to ask you back
I don't know if you'll ever get to hear this song
But I needed to tell you that

When I

[Refren]

When I first let you go I aint know that it would hurt
But I miss you
I aint never had it bad
But each day is gettin worse cuz I miss you
Baby
Sorry

The things I said and the things I did
If you want to hurry home cuz I'm sittin here alone
Cuz I miss you

[2:Jhonta Austin]

You had heart enough to handle me
But I kept my heart out of reach
Feeling strong enough to carry us
Still I violatd every trust
Is it too late
I wonder to say I'm sorry
Too late
I wonder to bed your pardon
All I think about is how I messed it up
And all I think about is how I need ya love

[Mostek: Johnta Austin]

And if I had it to do all over
I would find me another way
To express whats on my mind
And try to find me the words I wanna say
And now I'm to hurt to love another
But I'm too proud to ask you back
I don't know if you'll ever get to hear this song
But I needed to tell you that

When I

[Refren]

When I first let you go I aint know that it would hurt
But I miss you
I aint never had it bad
But each day is gettin worse cuz I miss you
Baby
Sorry

The things I said and the things I did
If you want to hurry home cuz I'm sittin here alone
Cuz I miss you
[Chris Brown]
And If I can see you
I'll tell you that I'm sorry
I'll tell you that its my fault
And I don't wanna be alone
And if I can hold you
I'll love you like I never did before
And then I would love you more
Never ever let you go
[Johnta Austin (Chris Brown)]
I swear that if I had it to do all over (had it to do)
I would find me another way (find another way)
To express whats on my mind
And try to find me the words I wanna say
And now I'm to hurt to love another (too hurt to love)
But too damn proud to ask you back (too proud to ask you back)
I don't know if you'll ever get to hear this song
But I needed, I needed to tell you that
[Refren]
When I first let you go I aint know that it would hurt
But I miss you
I aint never had it bad
But each day is gettin worse cuz I miss you
Baby
Sorry
The things I said and the things I did
If you want to hurry home cuz I'm sittin here alone
Cuz I miss you
