

Chris Brown, Very Special

You're such a very special girl
Let me love you, love
Hope you're ready for the world
Let me love you, love you now
'Cause I need you right, right now
Love you now
'Cause I need you like right
'Cause I need you right, right now

I think the world of you
I see the things you do
I mean it and I know
And, baby, I'm not leaving, oh, yeah
'Cause I need you right, right now
I need you right, right now
'Cause I need you right, right now
Now, now, now, now
'Cause I need you right, right now
Now, now, now, now

I think the world of you
I see the things you do
I mean it and I know
And, baby, I'm not leaving, oh, yeah
'Cause I need you right, right now
I need you right, right now

One step closer
Flying through a ring of fire
Falling, I can hear your body
There's no point stalling 'cause I
I want you to be my baby
I want you to share my name
I want you to play my game
Don't have to fantasize
Just have to live our lives
You compete my whole vibe (Oh, yeah)
This love will stop time, ooh-wee

You're such a very special girl
Let me love you, love
Hope you're ready for the world
Let me love you, love you now
'Cause I need you right, right now
Love you now
'Cause I need you right, right
'Cause I need you right, right now

I think the world of you
I see the things you do
I mean it and I know
And, baby, I'm not leaving, oh
'Cause I need you right, right now
I need you right, right
I think the world of you
I see the things you do
I mean it and I know
And, baby, I'm not leaving, oh
'Cause I need you right, right now
I need you right, right

You're such a very special girl
Let me love you, love
Hope you're ready for the world

Let me love you, love you now
