

Chris Cummings, Betty

I was Archie
He was Reggie
I guess that made her Veronica
The competition was gettin heavy
Fighting for her unrequited love
And sugar sugar I was so blind and wrong
You know that Archie should have seen this all along
You're my Betty baby
Strong and steady baby
You get me ready to face about anything
With you I cannot fail I'm the king of Riverdale
Sell my jalopy baby just to buy you a ring
(You're my Betty baby)
Just to buy you a ring
(You're my Betty baby)
You know my best friend lets call him Jughead
Come to think of it it's not much of a stretch
But even he says I've come to my senses
Chasing Veronica is like walkin on a ledge
The view is so sweet if your balance is sound
But she will push you just to see how far you'll bounce
You're my Betty baby
Strong and steady baby
You get me ready to face about anything
With you I cannot fail I'm the king of Riverdale
Sell my jalopy baby just to buy you a ring
(You're my Betty baby)
And sugar sugar (sugar sugar) I was so blind and wrong
You know that Archie should have seen this all along
You're my Betty baby (baby...)
Strong and steady baby
You get me ready to face about anything
With you I cannot fail, I'm the king of Riverdale
Sell my jalopy baby just to buy you a ring
(You're my Betty baby)
Oh, just to buy you a ring
You're my Betty baby x3
.....You're my Betty baby
