

Chris Isaak, King Without A Castle

Like a king, without a castle,
like a man without a home.
I call your name, but there's no answer...
and I'm left here on my own.
just wonderin,
wonderin
wonderin
wonderin...where did our love go?
Does anybody know?

A man alone he has no future...
A man alone he has no friends,
there was a time I thought I found her,
one to love me till the end.
now I'm wonderin
wonderin
wonderin
wonderin
wonderin....where did our love go?

does anybody know?

wonderin
wonderin (wonderin)

I'm like a king, without a castle,
with a heart condemned to roam
I'll keep searchin, till I find you,
Till I do I'll be alone
Just wonderin
wonderin
wonderin
wonderin
wonderin
where did our love go? Does anybody know?
does anybody know?
does anybody know?
anybody know?
