

Chris Rea, Ain't Going Down This Way

I see the morning light - come screaming thru my room
I fel the devils eyes - and smell his cold perfume
There is no mercy here - Ccould not be a darker day
But I ain't going down - I ain't going down this way

Oh I know your face - I've seen it a thousand times
In my darkest dream - I have witnessed every single crime
You think I'm joking - I'm wet with fear
But I've made up my mind today
I ain't going down
I ain't going down this way
